

What Makes A Life Significant?

a panel discussion in memory of William James

Monday, 26 April 2010

CGIS South Building, lower level
1730 Cambridge St
Cambridge MA 02138

Join us in the Concourse at 5:00 pm for a reception & exhibition of rare materials from Harvard's Collection of Historical Scientific Instruments & Houghton Library.

The panel discussion is at 6:00 pm in the Tsai Auditorium (until 7:30 pm).

Moderator

James Kloppenberg (Warren Professor of American History at Harvard)

Panelists

Sissela Bok (philosopher & Senior
Visiting Fellow, Harvard's Center for Population & Development Studies)

Louis Menand (Bass
Professor of English at Harvard)

Cornel West (Class of 1943 University Professor at Princeton)

Image provided by Houghton Library